

Brief Report on “Hack The Mountains & Intellify Hackathon Event”

1.	Title	Hack The Mountains and Intellify Hackathon Event
2.	Objective of an Event	Hackathons encourage creative problem-solving, teamwork, and innovation. It brings together various groups to solve real-world problems utilizing technology and creativity. Hackathons promote skill development, creative thinking, and project implementation. It connects people with mentors, industry experts, and like-minded colleagues to foster networking and creativity.
3.	About an Event	The Hackathon event "Hack The Mountains 5.0" and Intellify 2.0 in association with Marwadi University, powered by Sudan's Tech was held on September 14 and 15, 2024. This 30-hour hackathon brought a wealth of diverse projects to the table. The event kicked off with an inauguration led by Dr. Partharajsinh Gohil - DCP, Rajkot, Provost Dr. Rajendrasinh Jadeja, Dr. Sanjeet Singh, Executive Registrar Mr. Naresh Jadeja, Mr. Mohit Sharma (HTM Organizer), and Mr. Anmol Reshi (HTM Co-Organizer). The event was executed in collaboration with the Department of Computer Engineering, led by Dr. Krunal Vaghela; the Department of AI, ML & DS and Bachelor of Science, headed by Dr. Madhu Shukla; and the Department of IT, under Dr. Palaniappan Damodharan. On September 14, after the inauguration, hacking commenced with 323 offline participants from various parts of India. To rejuvenate the participants, various team-building activities were organized, including a DJ show in the evening and a midnight jam session. Everyone had a great time. The hacking concluded on September 15 at 1:30 PM, followed by several mentoring sessions. Two rounds of judging were conducted, and the results were announced, including many surprise prizes. The event also included a felicitation ceremony where chief guests, heads of departments, HTM team officials, faculty coordinators, committee members, and student volunteers were presented with tokens of appreciation and mementos.

Outcome of the Event

Hack The Mountains 5.0 was a huge success, with numerous major results showing its influence on participants and the community:

1. Innovative Solutions: Participants addressed real-world issues in AI, healthcare, finance, and social impact with innovative and practical solutions across multiple courses.
2. Skill Enhancement: The hackathon offered hands-on experience, cooperation, and coaching from industry leaders to boost technical and soft skills. Many participants gained insights and improved problem-solving.
3. Networking Opportunities: The event promoted significant interactions among attendees, mentors, and industry leaders. These contacts enabled cooperation, internships, and jobs.
4. Recognition of Talent: Awards were given to standout projects in each track at the closing event. This recognition inspired participants and displayed their abilities to future employers and colleagues.
5. Community Building: The hybrid format fostered a feeling of community among computer enthusiasts, students, and professionals. Collaboration fostered idea and experience exchange, enhancing the IT community. The success of Hack The Mountains 5.0 has sparked ideas for future events, with organizers keen to continue fostering creativity and cooperation in the digital sector.
7. Social effect initiatives: Participants' commitment to leveraging technology for good change in their communities was shown via initiatives focusing on social effect and sustainability.

Hack The Mountains 5.0 met its goals and inspired individuals to follow their hobbies and meaningfully contribute to the digital sector. It promoted creativity, cooperation, and community participation, setting a high bar for future hackathons.
