Report on Sensitization Seminar: Student and Startup Policy 2.0

Date: 18/07/2025

Venue: Government Arts and Commerce College, Jam Khambhaliya

A sensitization seminar on the "Student and Startup Policy 2.0" of the Education Department, Government of Gujarat, was successfully organized at the Government Arts and Commerce College in Jam Khambhaliya. The event aimed to enlighten students about the key provisions and opportunities available under the new policy, fostering a spirit of innovation and entrepreneurship.

The seminar was attended by 65 enthusiastic students from the college, who were keen to learn about the government's initiatives to support young minds in their entrepreneurial journeys. The event was graced by the presence of the college Principal, Dr. P.R. Chauhan, who provided introductory remarks and emphasized the importance of such policies in the current academic landscape.

The seminar was skillfully coordinated by Mr. Kamlesh Gojiya. The main speaker for the event was Dr. Ashish Chudasama, who delivered an insightful and engaging session on the nuances of the Student and Startup Policy 2.0. Dr. Chudasama elaborated on how the policy provides a structured framework and financial assistance for students to convert their innovative ideas into viable startups. He highlighted various aspects of the policy, including funding support, mentorship opportunities, and the creation of an innovation-friendly ecosystem within educational institutions.

The session was interactive, with students actively participating in a question-and-answer segment, seeking clarifications on the application process and eligibility criteria. The seminar concluded on a positive note, successfully inspiring the attending students to explore the path of entrepreneurship and make the most of the resources provided by the government.
