- The competition generated impactful ideas aimed at solving real-world problems in pharmaceutical packaging.
- Each design was evaluated by an expert in the field — Ms. Shachi Patel, who provided valuable insights into patentability, design functionality, and innovation scope.
- The entries reflected a wide range of applications including:
  - Smart dispensing systems
  - Travel-friendly containers
  - Child-safe and hygienic designs
  - Precision measuring devices
  - Eco-conscious packaging
- The event successfully raised awareness about design patents and encouraged students to think from both technical and IP protection perspectives.
- The best innovations may be considered for further development and potential patent filing.
