Brief about Event

An Awareness Programme on SSIP 2.0 and Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) was successfully organized by the Saurashtra University Startup & Entrepreneurship Council (SUSEC) in association with the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), Department of Computer Science, and SPRIHA, Saurashtra University. The programme was conducted on 14th November 2025 (Friday) at the Department of Computer Science, Saurashtra University, with the objective of empowering students, innovators, and aspiring entrepreneurs.

The awareness session was delivered by Mr. Parth Sejpal, IPR Chair Professor, SPRIHA, Saurashtra University, who shared valuable insights on innovation support mechanisms and intellectual property protection. The session aimed to familiarize participants with Student Startup and Innovation Policy (SSIP) 2.0 and its role in nurturing innovation and entrepreneurship within academic institutions.

During the session, Mr. Sejpal explained the scope, benefits, and funding support available under SSIP 2.0 for students and innovators. He highlighted how the policy encourages idea generation, prototype development, startup formation, and commercialization of innovative solutions. Special emphasis was laid on aligning student ideas with institutional and government-supported innovation ecosystems.

The programme also covered the fundamentals of Intellectual Property Rights, including patents, copyrights, trademarks, and designs. The speaker emphasized the importance of protecting innovative ideas at an early stage to ensure long-term sustainability and competitive advantage. Practical examples were shared to help participants understand real-world applications of IPR.

The session witnessed active participation from students and faculty members, who engaged in discussions related to innovation funding, IPR filing processes, and startup support systems. The programme served as an effective platform to bridge awareness gaps and motivate participants to actively participate in innovation-driven initiatives.

Key Points

During the session, below mentioned points were discussed:

- SSIP 2.0 Overview
- Innovation Funding
- Startup Support
- IPR Awareness
- Idea Protection
- Institutional Ecosystem
- Student Engagement

Outcome

The awareness programme significantly enhanced participants' understanding of SSIP 2.0 and the critical role of Intellectual Property Rights in the innovation lifecycle. Students gained clarity on funding opportunities, institutional support systems, and procedural aspects of protecting their innovations through IPR mechanisms.

Overall, the programme successfully inspired students to pursue innovation and entrepreneurship with confidence and strategic awareness. It strengthened the culture of innovation at Saurashtra University and encouraged participants to utilize available policies, schemes, and institutional resources to transform their ideas into impactful ventures.
