EXPERT NAME WITH DESIGNATION	Dr. Bhavin Vilas Dhanavade MD(Ayu)PhD (Scholar) Associate Professor Department of Dravyaguna Vigyan Parul Institute of Ayurved and Research Parul University
SDGs Goal	SDGs 4: Quality Education

Objective

The objective of the Expert Talk organized on the occasion of World Entrepreneur's Day was to enlighten nursing students about the evolving landscape of entrepreneurship in healthcare and nursing. The event aimed to empower future nursing professionals with insights on how innovation and entrepreneurial thinking can transform the nursing profession and healthcare delivery.

Activity Details

The Expert Talk was held at the Multipurpose Hall, Parul Institute of Nursing on 23rd August 2025. The event was organized under the leadership of Dr. Ravindra H. N., Principal & Dean of PIN (Convenor), and Dr. Devraj Singh Chouhan, Principal of PINR (Co-Convenor), with Ms. Minal Prajapati, Assistant Professor, serving as the Coordinator.

The session was led by Dr. Bhavin Vilas Dhanavade, who shared deep insights on the need for entrepreneurial skills in the field of nursing. He emphasized how nurses, equipped with innovation and leadership, can create impactful health ventures, start-ups, and community-based solutions.

The session covered:

- The role of nurses as change agents
- Opportunities for nurse-led entrepreneurship
- Startup ecosystem and incubation support for healthcare innovations
- Real-life case studies of nurse entrepreneurs
- Interactive Q&A session to clarify doubts and motivate students

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Understanding Entrepreneurial Roles in Nursing

Students gained knowledge of how entrepreneurship can be integrated into nursing to enhance patient care and career growth.

2. Awareness of Innovation and Startups

The session introduced students to the startup ecosystem relevant to healthcare and nursing.

3. Career Diversification

Students understood diverse paths beyond traditional clinical roles, including innovation, research, and enterprise.

4. Motivation for Leadership

The talk inspired students to develop confidence and proactive leadership in addressing healthcare challenges through entrepreneurial solutions.

The session featured a blend of interactive elements, including real-time Q&A, scenario-based discussions, and live polling to gauge entrepreneurial interest among students. Dr. Dhanavade also highlighted the importance of collaboration, ethical innovation, and sustainability in developing viable healthcare enterprises.

The event drew an enthusiastic response from nursing students across semesters, reflecting the growing curiosity and motivation among future nursing professionals to explore non-traditional and leadership-oriented career paths.

Overall, the session served as a strategic academic intervention to integrate the concepts of entrepreneurship, innovation, and leadership into the nursing education framework.

CONCLUSION

The Expert Talk on World Entrepreneur's Day – 2025 proved to be an eye-opener for nursing students, making them aware of the vast potential of entrepreneurship within their field. The session successfully instilled a spirit of innovation and leadership, aligning with the vision of transforming nurses into future healthcare innovators and social entrepreneurs.
